

Count-Down for Spring

Robert McCracken

Reader 1: One is the flag fluttering in the breeze,

Reader 2: Two are the kites careening by the trees.

Reader 3: Three are the worms wriggling in the ground.

Reader 4: Four are the robins listening for worm's sound.

Reader 5: Five are the daffodils wearing green and yellow.

Reader 1: Six are the calves, following mother's bellow.

Reader 2: Seven are the crocuses, bursting in the air.

Reader 3: Eight are the tulips, swaying everywhere.

Reader 4: Nine are the raindrops, dampening everything.

Reader 5: Ten are the children welcoming spring.

All: Yippee! We love spring!
