The crocodile
Has a toothy smile.
His teeth are sharp and long.
And in the swamp
When he takes a chomp,
His bite is quick and strong!

So if you smile
At a crocodile,
There's just one thing I'll say:
If he smiles too,
Be sure that you
Are very far away!

By Meish Goldish

Circle the rhyming words in the poem.
Write them on the lines in the box.