Did you ever have a fire drill?
We had one today.
Our teacher told us what to do
So we would be OK.

There really was no fire at all.
It only was a drill.
We walked out to the schoolyard
And stood there very still.

We could not talk or run or play,
Until the drill was through.
Now, if there really is a fire,
We know just what to do!

Read the poem with a friend.
Circle the rhyming words in the poem.