It’s fall. That’s why...
It’s cool in the sky.
And the smell of them burning.

It’s green leaves turning.
It’s a crisp dry sound.
It’s nuts on the ground.

It’s chilly red knees.
It’s wind blowing leaves.
It’s burrs on dog’s chins.

It’s pumpkins in bins.
It’s an airborne spider.
It’s apples and cider.

I love fall. Fall is exciting.

Love Fall

Circle the rhyming words in the poem. Write them on the lines.

Draw and color two more leaves above.

The fall months are September, October, and November. The leaves turn from green to yellow, red, and orange. The days are getting colder and there is a chill in the air. It’s time to start wearing jackets.

The days are getting shorter. We celebrate Halloween and Thanksgiving in the fall. Autumn. Another name for fall is Autumn. The leaves are getting shorter. We celebrate Halloween and Thanksgiving in the fall. The days are getting shorter.
