All About Johnny Appleseed
Johnny Appleseed was born in Massachusetts on September 26, 1774. His real name was John Chapman. His dream was to plant so many apple trees that nobody would go hungry.

When he was 18, he began to travel around planting apple trees. He gave away or sold his apple trees to other pioneers. He also traded his plants for the things he needed. He loved living in the wilderness surrounded by lots of trees. He was gentle and kind to his friends the animals. Some people say he wore a pot on his head. He died at the age of 74 after 50 years of travel.
Write a fact in each apple about Johnny Appleseed.

Johnny Appleseed

Story Map
1. Johnny Appleseed’s real name was ____________________________

2. He lived in the wilderness. Describe that word: ____________________________

3. What was his dream? ____________________________

4. What did he do with his apples? ____________________________

5. Oh, my! Why do you think he wore his pot on his head? ____________________________