Raccoon

Color Me!

Good afternoon, raccoon!
There’s something I’d like to ask:
Why do you have those rings on your tail
And why do you wear a mask?

Good afternoon, raccoon!
There’s something I’d like to say:
Why do you hunt for food at night
And stay in your den all day?

By Meish Goldish

Make new “ay” words

_______ ay
_______ ay
_______ ay
_______ ay
_______ ay

Read the poem with a friend.
Circle the rhyming words.

Facts About Raccoons

- They are good climbers.
- They are good swimmers.
- They have heavy fur to keep them warm.
- Part of the time, they don’t hide in trees but may sleep.
- In winter, they do hide in trees.
- They can stand up on their hind legs.
- Raccoons have paws that are used like hands.
- They look like they are wearing a mask.
- Their habitats are the forest and rivers.
- They are omnivores and eat plants and animals.

© www.jbonzer.com
Graphics Thistle Girl Designs & DJ Inkers