Circle the rhyming words in the poem.

Now let's go back to the start.

And a heart.

Diamond, oval, hexagon means STOP!

I can hop, here's a star that I have found!

Five circles all around.

Four triangles, count some more.

Three rectangles on the floor.

This is what we call a pair.

One square, two squares.

Put the shape words in ABC order.

1. ________________________
2. ________________________
3. ________________________
4. ________________________
5. ________________________
6. ________________________

Shape Chart

Shapes by Love to Teach