

The Great Pancake Escape!

This is the story of three children who chase after pancakes that their magician father has mistakenly brought to life. The pancakes try to hide by taking the form of tires, roller-skate wheels, Frisbees and other round objects. The kids return home empty-handed, and realize that the book their father used was a magic book not a cookbook. Using one of the book's spells, they call the pancakes back. The pancakes change all the way back to batter. The kids refuse their father's offer to cook more pancakes and instead decide to eat frozen waffles.

1. In this story, the children's father is a _____.
2. Name two things that the pancakes turn into.

3. The pancakes turn all the way back into _____.
4. What do the children eat at the end of the story?

Think of something else that the pancakes could turn into.
Draw a picture and label it on the back of this paper.