

The Swarm of Bees

Reader 1: One little honeybee by my window flew,

Reader 2: Soon came another—then there were two.

Reader 3: Two happy honeybees in the apple tree,

Reader 4: One more bee came buzzing up—then there were three.

Reader 5: Three busy honeybees starting to explore,

Reader 1: Another bee came to help—then there were four.

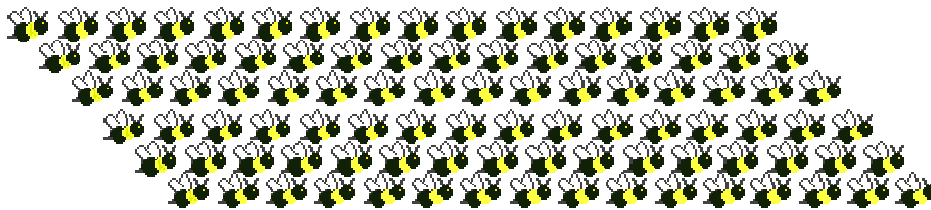

Reader 2: Four laden honeybees flying to the hive,

Reader 3: They were joined by one more bee—then there were five.

Reader 4: Five tired honeybees with the others mix,

Reader 5: Now there's a swarm of them—a hundred times six!
